

Minbar Post Guidelines

- 1.Length: Your article should be between 300 and 500 words. This length ensures that your message is both clear and concise, while also maintaining the reader's attention throughout
- 2.Relevance: Your topic should be pertinent to Somali society. We are interested in a broad range of subjects that touch on youth empowerment, civic engagement, and political development in Somalia. Please make sure your article is thoroughly researched and offers a thoughtful and well-informed perspective on the issue
- 3.Participants: Contributors must be between the ages of 15 and 40. Our objective is to provide a platform for young Somalis to voice their ideas and perspectives, fostering a space for the next generation to engage in meaningful dialogue
- 4.Crediting: We will ensure that you are fully credited for your work. Along with your article, please include your name, email address, and a short biography (2–3 sentences) so readers can learn more about you
- 5.Fees: There are no submission fees associated with contributing to Minbar. We believe in providing a free and open platform for Somali voices to be heard, without financial barriers.
- 6.Language: We accept submissions in both Somali and English. Feel free to write in the language you are most comfortable with. Our team is equipped to review articles in either language, ensuring your message reaches our audience effectively
- 7.Editing: Our editorial team will review and edit your article for clarity, grammar, and style. While we may make minor adjustments to ensure the piece meets our editorial standards, we are committed to preserving the original message and intent of your work. Our goal is to enhance readability and impact while maintaining your unique voice and perspective
- 8.Submission Process: To submit your article, please use the submission link provided on our website or send your piece directly to our official email: info@minbarspace.com
- 9.Contact Information: If you have any questions or need further clarification regarding the submission guidelines, please feel free to contact us at info@minbarspace.com
